■ Mercer's National Survey of Employer-Sponsored Health Plans

2009 Results

Each year, Employers Health provides employers tools to benchmark their own health plans and prescription drug plan designs and costs, for use in labor negotiations and as a strategic planning aid. On Tuesday, March 9, John Sinclair, Principal for Mercer Health & Benefits, will reveal the Ohio-specific results of the Mercer survey. He will also share reliable national benchmarks and normative comparison points for the Ohio-specific data. Sinclair will be joined by colleague Chuck Adamczyk, Principal in Mercer's Cleveland office, for the Canton presentation.

You can expect to learn about:

- Average annual per-employee healthcare costs
- Average employee health insurance contribution amounts
- Average deductibles, co-pays, out-of-pocket limits
- Prescription drug benefits
- Retiree health
- Consumer-directed health plans
- Productivity benchmarking
